

Ref No: CS 2023 - 01	Title: Child Safeguarding Statement
Date Issued: 01/02/2023	Review Date: 2025	Ref #: Best Practice

Policy:

Galway Community Circus have an obligation to provide children with the highest possible standard of care in order to promote their wellbeing and safeguard them from abuse. It endeavours to do so by protecting them from neglect and physical, sexual and emotional harm through adhering to the following principles which underpin this Child Safeguarding Statement and the organisation's Child Protection Policy

Objective:

A Child Safeguarding Statement is a written statement that specifies the service being provided and the principles and procedures to be observed in order to ensure, as far as practicable, that a child availing of the service is safe from harm.

Scope:

The Safeguarding Statement applies to all of the following roles within Galway Community Circus; Staff, volunteers, students on placement and Board members. The Child Safeguarding Statement applies when working Galway Community Circus locations / services / projects and while attending and working in other locations in the course of work for and/or on behalf of the organisation.

1. Name of service being provided: Galway Community Circus

2. Nature of service and principles to safeguard children from harm

Galway Community Circus is Ireland's flagship organisation for youth and social circus, located in the heart of Galway City with a local, national, and international remit. Our aim is to advance the artistic, personal, and social development of young people through circus arts. We are committed to creating an innovative and imaginative learning experience where all young people can realize their full potential.

We work with young people aged 0-25 years. We are committed to working with all young people regardless of their social, economic, or geographical situation. We carry out a range of activities including weekly classes, workshops, performances, rehearsals, trips away and international exchanges.

Child Protection Statement

The Board of Directors, the Executive Creative Director and all staff and volunteers of Galway Community Circus believe that the protection and welfare of children and young people are of paramount importance in our work as a youth arts organisation. Galway Community Circus' guiding principles aim to reassure workers, volunteers, families, children, young people and the wider community that Galway Community Circus is dedicated to safeguarding children and young people and that the welfare and protection of children and young people in our care is always the priority.

Galway Community Circus is committed to a youth-cantered approach in our work. It is the policy of the organisation that all staff and volunteer leaders take all reasonable care to ensure that all children and young people involved in our services are protected from abuse of any kind. We undertake to provide a safe environment and positive experience, where the welfare of the young person is paramount. Such a policy is an invaluable tool in helping our staff involved in working with young people, to safeguard both the young person and themselves.

Galway Community Circus has completed the Code of Practice for Good Governance of Community, Voluntary and Charitable Organisations in Ireland in 2017 and continues toward full compliance with the New Governance code in 2022 and this child protection policy and its guidelines is to be taken considering all other policies within the organisation relating to HR, Health and Safety, Welfare and Data Protection. In particular, in relation to children and young people, the Code of Good Practice for staff and volunteers, Guidelines for Overnight and Day trips away go hand in hand with our Child Protection Policy as does the Arts Council Guidelines for taking & using images of young people. GCC's policy is derived from and consistent with Children First: National Guidance for the Protection and Welfare of Children; Children First Act 2015; A Guide for the Reporting of Child Protection and Welfare Concerns.
