Cancellation Policy for Galway Community Circus Activities

Updated : July 2020

Registration & Cancellation

1. All members must re-register with Galway Community Circus each term through our online system to maintain their place within a class. The correct class must be booked, or the class will be refunded, and the place possibly lost.
2. Payments are to be made only via the online system – cash, cheque or bank transfer will not be accepted.
3. Places cannot be held for members who do not register on time.
4. When a member misses a class, It is not possible to “make up” for missed classes or be refunded.
5. For substantial absence of a member from our classes, a medical note from a Doctor/Hospital/Chartered Physiotherapist must be provided in order to receive refunds for classes missed due to injury/illness, this must include the start and end date of the classes being missed. Refunds can only be given from the time we are notified via email.
6. In the event of closure in exceptional circumstances that is beyond management control i.e adverse weather conditions etc refunds cannot be processed. Where possible the Circus will do its best to schedule a ‘make up’ class. This may not always be possible. These classes will only be cancelled on government or met Eireann advice.
7. In the event of a closure in further exceptional circumstances that are also beyond management control i.e. pandemic etc refunds will be processed if the closure passes 2 weeks. These refunds will incur a 10% administrative fee.

Cancellation of courses once they have started:

If a member does not wish to continue to participate in Circus, we are not in a position to refund courses shorter than 6/12-weeks (Depending on term length). A refund can be given for the outstanding balance of the term fee (minus €20 admin cost), if you notify us of the cancellation by email to info@galwaycircus.com no later than one week prior to the first break of that term (Halloween, Easter etc.).

Cancellation of courses before they have started:
